

List of Construction Supplies (Materials) Prices in Philippines

Share on Facebook

Share on Twitter

I made this list of construction supplies pricelist in the Philippines as a reference. Everytime I need to buy construction materials for a project, I need to get the prices of the materials for estimation purposes.

Thus, I can adjust the quantity of materials to buy corresponding to my budget. If you know prices of the construction materials (hardware, electronics, paints, etc.) in your area, please post them in the comment below including the name and location of the store. Let's help each other build this list.
